BIO

Director • Cinematographer • Producer

Wes Holmes is a director, cinematographer, and producer with over a decade of experience across scripted series, documentary, unscripted television, and commercial production. He has delivered broadcast work for Bell Fibe TV1, CBC, NTV, and ETV, often serving in multiple roles from development through delivery.

His work is rooted in cinematic, character-driven storytelling that explores the connection between place, culture, and people. Known for a hands-on and adaptable approach, Wes brings visual authenticity to projects ranging from cultural and lifestyle series to documentary and commercial work, whether working independently or leading collaborative production teams.
